AppareLink is ordering made easy, and so much more!

As we've served thousands of businesses and organizations for more than three decades, we've found that every customer is different, but their questions to ProLine are often the same:

Is there an easier way to manage our apparel and promotional products which doesn't require us to spend seemingly endless hours selecting and designing products, taking and placing orders, managing distribution, keeping up with inventory, and handling payments?

With AppareLink the answer is yes!

Our brand is important to us, but it seems like some of our vendors just don't get it! Is there a vendor which will take our brand as seriously as we do, use it only as we direct, and provide quality products which consistently and professionally represent our brand?

With AppareLink the answer is yes!

We've been purchasing t-shirts from one vendor, embroidered polos from another, and business gifts and promotional products from two additional vendors. Does ProLine offer one-stop shopping for these items?

With AppareLink exclusively from ProLine, the answer is yes!

By implementing AppareLink we have improved our ordering accuracy, eliminated inventory issues, and reduced the time it takes to place our orders.
